Sparkle Awards!

16th December 2021

Nomination Form 2021 - Jeanette Boyd Award

Description of the award

Jeanette was an inspiration to everyone who knew her.

She worked tirelessly in her own community of Windsor Park in Musselburgh, but she also volunteered on the Tenants Panel with the Scottish Government and was on the Board of the Tenants Information Service.

Jeanette died in May 2020 and continues to be missed by all who knew her.

This award recognises an inspiring volunteer, who has demonstrated an exceptional commitment and passion to their local area and improving community spirit; strengthening relationships and communication; championing tenant participation and finding innovative new ways to get people involved.
