Membership Packages

Our aim is simple, we want to help change social rented housing in Scotland for the better.

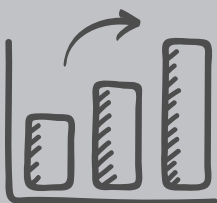

TIS is the leading organisation, promoting and inspiring innovative tenant participation and scrutiny practice in Scotland.

At TIS, we provide independent advice, support, and training for tenants and housing organisations to work together more effectively.

As a national membership organisation, our services can make a difference to your quality of life as a tenant, and to the success of your organisation.

We are committed to providing independent advice and support to tenants and landlords.

Our expertise is available to support you in influencing every aspect of housing services, policies and standards. We harness specialist knowledge, and experience within our organisation to expand your personal development and understanding of topical housing issues and provide examples of positive practice throughout the sector.

TIS Membership is open to tenants, housing organisations, and other interested organisations throughout Scotland. Join TIS and gain access to one of the sector's largest Membership communities.
